BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

Orramel Hinckley (1813-1868) was a steamboat owner and captain whose business was centered principally in New Orleans and Opelousas, Louisiana. His wife, Anna Hawley Gardner (1824-1886), and son, Orramel Strong Hinckley (1840-1885), lived in Washington, Louisiana, in St. Landry Parish. Anna Hawley Gardner was the daughter of Thomas Gardner and granddaughter of Asa Norton, tanners and dealers in hides and deer skins in St. Landry Parish.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Personal and business papers and account books (1834-1897) of Orramel Hinckley document his work as a steamboat captain and include volumes containing cash debts, credits and accounts of the owners of the steamboat Anna (1854-1855), list of accounts for the steamer A. W. Glaze (1854-1855), accounts for the steamer Aline (1858-1863), insurance records (1860), lists of crew, expenses, and cash paid for barge workers (1863), and receipts and expenses for the flatboat Robert E. Lee. Other correspondence pertains to family matters and to the education of the Hinckley children at the Alexandria Boarding School in Alexandria, Virginia, and a manuscript volume contains poems by Orramel S. Hinckley. The collection also includes five photographs of Hinckley family members.

Civil War letters and items pertain largely to the transportation of government stores and the procurement of supplies for the Confederate Army. Hinckley served as a second lieutenant on Confederate transport vessels. A letter of Orran Gardner requests clothing and describes camp conditions and United States Army prisoners of war. Confederate States' tax receipts and amnesty oaths signed by O. Hinckley and O. S. Hinckley are included.

Papers (1811-1855) and a ledger (1835-1849) of Asa Norton and Thomas Gardner relate to their activities as tanners and leather dealers. A volume (1853-1859) contains orders, memoranda, and a list of slaves belonging to the estate of Mary Gardner.

Printed volumes include directions for the use of medicines (1841) and the by-laws and rules of the New Albany Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons (1851).

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

[The collection is arranged chronologically, but like items are described in groups below. See the Container List for description reflecting physical arrangement.]

Series I. Gardner and Norton Families, 1811-1860, undated

Business papers include a bill of sale of a cattle brand to Asa Norton (1811), a land agreement between Asa Norton and Antoine Fournelle (1812), various receipts and account sheets for Thomas Gardner (1816-1818, 1827-1829), including a receipt for a horse for William Dalton (1825) and an account sheet for Charles Norton (1827). These papers also include a certificate appointing Thomas Gardner Overseer of the Thirteenth Road District of St. Landry Parish (1818) and directions for different methods of tanning and using different varieties of Moroccan leather (undated).

Correspondence includes a letter from John Gardner to his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gardner, informing them of his engagement (1817) and a later letter to Mrs. Gardner from John Gardner tells of his wife's death (1820). A letter from Polly Gardner to her sister Harriet Hawley in Connecticut provides family news (1821) and a letter to Thomas Gardner from John Maddox discusses the death of Maddox's brother and inquires about any land or money he left behind (1824). Letters to Thomas Gardner from John Hawley discuss his crops and provide updates about his family (1831) and documents surrounding the estates of Mary Norton and Thomas Gardner are also included (1844, 1860). Finally, a letter from Orran Gardner from Camp Boggs, a prisoner of war camp in Shreveport, Louisiana, requests an overcoat and pants, as no more are to be issued. He discusses the amount of food issued to each person and talks of the number of Yankee prisoners and deserters at the camp (undated).

Series II. Orramel Hinckley Business Papers, 1834-1867

A letter from Erasmus W. Benton recommends Orramel Hinckley as a trusted steamboat engineer (1834). A number of business letters are written to Hinckley (1851-1860), many from Capt. Louaillier (1857-1860), including one discussing the burning of the Steamer A. W. Glaze (1857), and many from Augustin & Thibaud with information for sugar planters (1859).

Financial papers such as account sheets (1837-1839), tax receipts, shipping receipts, balance sheets (1850-1866), shipping agreements (1851), and insurance certificates for the Steamboat Nina Simmes (1860) are included, as are a land grant of Thomas Byrne (1853), and an act of co-partnership of Hinckley and others (1860). Later business letters are addressed to O. Hinckley and Son (1866-1867).

Items during the Civil War pertain largely to the transportation of government stores and the procurement of supplies for the Confederate Army. They include orders to Captain Hinckley to organize the men and protect the town of Washington, Louisiana (October 1861), a certificate stating Mel Hinckley an active member and recruiting officer for the Orleans Flying Cavalry Squadron (May 1861), and the appointment of O. S. Hinckley Second Lieutenant of the State Boat Anna Perrett of the Militia of Louisiana (June 1862). Other letters and orders concern government supplies and transportation of stores (1863-1864), including one order from Headquarters, Trans-Mississippi Department, Office of the Cotton Bureau pertaining to General Taylor's order against trading with the enemy and penalties for buying cotton to take to the enemy (March 1864). Confederate States' tax receipts (1864) are also included as is the amnesty oath for O. Hinckley.

Series III. Hinckley Family Personal Papers, 1835-1897, undated

Letters from Hinckley to his nephew in Mobile, Alabama, discuss his work, places he visits, and other family members (1835-1836). The first letter to Anna Gardner from Orramel Hinckley is written before their marriage (January 13, 1839) and subsequent letters are written after they are married, with Hinckley writing from various steamers (1839-1860). A number of letters are written from Orramel S. Hinckley to his father (1850, 1855) and mother (1854-1855) discussing family members and studies. A letter from Benjamin Hallowell of Alexandria Boarding School to Orramel Hinckley discusses his son (1855), while a letter to Hinckley from L. W. Everitt, a teacher and surgeon, discusses O. S. Hinckley's education and gift for studying medicine and encourages Hinckley to allow his son to pursue it (1860).

Also included is the funeral announcement for Charles Hinckley, son of Orramel Hinckley, aged four (1847), a poem for Orramel Hinckley (1850), and an invitation to the Annual Hoosier Ball (1857). A certificate of registration appointing Orramel Hinckley a Royal Arch Mason (1850), the funeral notice of Rev. B. F. Wilson (1860), and an oath to the Constitution and voting registration for O. Hinckley (1867) are included, along with an invitation to a Fancy Dress Ball to Mrs. Hinckley and Family at the Masonic Hall (1869).

The funeral notice for Orramel Hinckley (1868) is included as are funeral notices (in French) for Octave Roy (1872), Jean Baptiste Roy (1873), Arthur Roy (1873), and Louise Pitre (1876). Also included are the estate of Orramel Hinckley (1879), funeral notices for Orramel Strong Hinckley, aged 45 (1885), Anna Gardner (1886), Joseph Muller (1888), Elbert Gantt (1888), Eraste Roy (1893), Anna Melanie Roger (1897), and Amanda Melvina Tesson (1897). A letter from Henry Hinckley discusses ancestors of the family (1875), as do copies and extracts of genealogical data (undated).
